Program presented by
Carol Hammond

Do you ever finish a painting and see something that makes you wish you had done it differently?

Determining the direction of your next successful painting through composition. This Program will review 12 design formats that will give the artist options on how best to develop the structure of their artwork

Frame it and Claim it

Saturday, September 14, 2019

1:30-3:30

Center for the Arts
122 W Broadway
Hobbs, NM

Program presented by
Judy Griffin and Fritzi Heron

Sure, you can have someone else mat, frame, and back your artwork. But who should know what makes it look professional and awesome? YOU! So taking charge of your artwork and preparing it for competition is an important step in preparing for a show. This program will update your knowledge, styles, possibilities, and techniques for making the most of your artwork.

Saturday, October 5 will be the opening reception for the
LEAA Fall Open Art Show
Prospectus will be published early in September.
